We used to have this figured out.
We used to breathe without a doubt.
When nights were clear, you were the first star that I'd see.
We used to have this under control.
We never thought.
We used to know.
At least there's you, and at least there's me.
Can we get this back?
Can we get this back to how it used to be?

(32-35) Please read the lyrics and answer the questions below:

Don't take opinions from people that won't listen to yours.
If money's where you find happiness, you'll always be poor.
If you don't like the job you have, then what do you do it for?
The cure to pain isn't something you buy at liquor stores.
The real you is not defined by the size of your office.
The real you is who you are when nobody is watching.
You spend your whole life worrying about what's in your wallet.
For what? That money won't show up in your coffin.
I look at the world from a different angle.
People change. Even Satan used to be an _____.
Mistakes can make you grow. That doesn't mean you're friends.
Who you are is up to you. Don't leave it up to them.
I heard that life's too short. Don't let it pass you by.
We waste a lot of time crying over wasted time.
You want something in life. Then why don't you go and get it?
Actions speak louder than words do. It's pretty quiet, isn't it?
It's not about what people think. It's how you feel inside.
My biggest failures in life are knowing I never tried.
