Dear Grandma,

I haven't seen you for a long time. How is your life in Paris? Have you visited the Eiffel Tower or (34) at the café beside the river Seine? I really miss you a lot!

These days, Dad and I (35). You know that I have dreamt about being a star since I was young. And since last month, I have tried to look slim and pretty by going to the gym and (36). But Dad doesn't understand that. He criticizes me all the time, and he says that school work should be my priority for now, not my looks. He doesn't allow me to skip meals. He asks me to finish all the food on my plate. He even told me that I am poor at acting or singing. So, we haven't talked to each other (37).

My dearest grandma, can you give him a phone call and talk to him about that? My dream is being a star, not going to a prestigious university. So far, I haven't changed my mind. I still want to go to Korea to go for my dream.

Yours,
Rora

Although she is already one of the most successful stars in the world, you've probably never heard of the singer's real name, Stefani Germanotta. That's because almost everyone knows her by the name of Lady Gaga. She got the name from the 1984 Queen song Radio Ga Ga.

However, Lady Gaga was not always popular and successful. In fact, she faced rejection and bullying in her young life. When she was a student in New York University (NYU), there was a Facebook group called "Stefani Germanotta, you'll never be famous." Things like that didn't stop her, and she never gave up her dream.

Finally, her hard work paid off when her first record, The Fame, hit the U.S. stores on August 19, 2008. In 2019, she became the FIRST woman in history to win an Oscar, Grammy, BAFTA, and Golden Globe all in the same year—all for the movie, A Star is Born. Now she is famous and has fans all over the world.

“There can be 100 people in a room, and 99 don’t believe in you. And you just need 1 person to believe in you,” she said the same thing again and again. It’s become a reminder for everyone to block the noise from naysayers and follow their dreams.
