Pingxi, Jiufen Day Trip with Sky Lantern Release From Taipei

Cultural & theme tours in Taiwan

$500

Duration
8 hours

Departure / Return
Your Taipei city hotel - Returns to original departure point

Tour Description
Your guide picks you up at your Taipei hotel in the morning and drives your small group (7 participants per group) to the Yin-Yang Sea, located on Taiwan’s northern coast. Stop here to view the fascinating two-toned sea where blue water is mixed with yellow mineral run-off from Jinguashi's old copper mines. You’ll also visit the nearby Golden Waterfall and marvel at this yellow-hued wonder. In Jiufen, walk the narrow streets and steep steps of this charming historical village, used as the set for several films including the award-winning Japanese anime Spirited Away. You can purchase lunch at a local eatery or bring your own. Then delight in a cup of Chinese tea at one of the many teahouses (own expense). Then, drive to Pingxi. On arrival, meander around Shifen Old Street to browse the souvenir shops for miniature sky lanterns. The village owes much of its fame to the Sky Lantern Festival where up to 200,000 glowing lanterns — made of oiled rice paper, satin or silk — are released together into the luminous sky. Even if you aren’t here for the annual festival, you won’t miss out on this magical tradition. Stop to write wishes on your own lantern, light a candle at its base and watch it take flight. In the late afternoon, you’ll return to Taipei by shared vehicle with drop-off at your hotel.
