Dear diary,

I found a wallet in the street on my way to school six months ago. There was some money in it but no name or address. I took the wallet to the police station. I told the police officer where I had found it and at what time I found it. I also gave him my name, address, and phone number.

The policeman called me today and asked me to come to the police station. When I got there, he told me that no one had come and asked for the wallet. He said I could have it. I thought about this. It was a good wallet, and I needed a new one. However, I didn't want the money. I said, " I'll take the wallet, but please give the money to the charity."

The policeman said he was very happy to do this. I felt happy about it, too.

Life is a long trip.

Both good and bad things happen on the road;

People love and hate,

They share and hide things.

Some things make me smile;

Some things make me cry.

Some days are sunny,

Some days are rainy-

Life is a long trip full of opposites.

I can't know what will happen,

So I have decided to be happy right now, every minute of my life.

To remember all that is wonderful;

To let go of all that makes me sad-

In this way I will live a " full " life.

Adopted from Johnny Wang

Many people have a smartphone today. Smartphones are very useful and make our lives easy. People use them to take pictures, make phone calls, and play music. They are wonderful and changed our lives so much. However, smartphones are becoming a big problem in the USA. How? People are using them when they shouldn't. Drivers are sending text messages when driving. People are walking and talking on the phone at the same time. Science tells us our brains can only do one thing at a time. When we try to do more things, we become "blind" to things around us.

When people are busy using their smartphones, they do not notice other people and things around them. More people are going to the hospital because they got hurt texting and walking. Drivers talking on the phone do not notice other drivers and hit them. In both problems, more and more deaths are happening. Police officers are working hard and trying to catch these people and give them a fine. These fines can be from $50 to $2000, and in some parts of USA, people can also be arrested by police officers and go to jail.
