More than 2500 years ago, when a baby was born in Sparta, the father would check its body carefully. If the baby's body was deformed or not strong enough, the father would leave it in the mountains to die. Healthy babies would stay with parents. When they turned seven, they went to school. There, they didn't have enough food to eat and had to sleep on the floor. Besides that, their teachers made them run fast, jump high, and fight game of stealing cheese. Students had to get pieces of cheese successfully, but their classmates would try to stop them by hitting them hard.

You may think doing homework is hard. However, your life is much easier than a Spartan student's. Would you want to trade places with them?

Some studies show that weather has a strong influence on people’s feelings. For example, people feel happy and friendly when the sun shines. That’s because the sun makes people feel warm. However, the hot weather is not always good for people. One study shows that students do badly on tests. For another example, people become tired more easily on cloudy days than on sunny days. So don’t be lethargic at work when there are dark clouds in the sky, or your boss will be angry with you. If it rains, people forget things easily and feel unhappy. No wonder on rainy days people leave more packages and umbrellas on buses and in stores. What’s worse, it even makes people want to cry.

Are you feeling sick, sad, tired, or happy today? The weather may be the cause.
